Hello... my name is

BoO

Saint Andrew

Hello!

Welcome to St Andrew's Church! Why don't you explore the church with me? People like to come here to see the beautiful artworks but they also come here to pray or because they are looking for somewhere quiet. It would be really nice if you talked in a hushed voice and looked around quietly. Do you think you can be even quieter than me?

ID CARD

Name: Saint Andrew
 Profession: patron saint, apostle
 Characteristics: often barefoot
 Attributes: fishing gear or an X-shaped cross

Every church has its own name, just like you and me. This church is called St Andrew's Church. Saint Andrew was one of the apostles, a disciple of Jesus. He protects this church.

Will you join me for a look at the pulpit? Here you can see a life-size sculpture of Jesus and the two brothers, Andrew and Peter! Can you guess what the two brothers did for a living? That's right, they were fishermen and to become his disciples. And they both say yes!

Two baroque artists, Jan-Frans Van Hool and Jan-Baptist Van Geel, produced this sculpture. Baroque artists love a lot of movement and drama, as you can see here.

The priest can climb the stairs to the pulpit and address the people in the church. Everyone can hear him very clearly when he stands there. Nowadays the priest only uses the pulpit on special occasions.

Did you

KNOW that...

★ ... Saint Andrew died on an X-shaped cross? You can find Saint Andrew's cross in the pulpit as well as in paintings and on sculptures in the church.

★ ... the priest soon will also receive a new outfit? The Antwerp fashion designer Dries Van Noten is designing a new chasuble for him for the Baroque festival in 2018. The chasuble is the robe the priest wears during Mass.

★ ... Saint Andrew's brother Saint Peter also died on the cross? His cross was turned upside down as you can see in the sculpture that Artus Quellinus (pronounced: 'Kelinus') produced of Saint Peter.

★ ... this church has two altar gardens? Not the kind of gardens with grass and flowers but stone gardens with beautifully-sculpted marble figures.

★ ... the neighbourhood around St Andrew's Church was originally called the Parish of Misery? It was one of Antwerp's poorest neighbourhoods for many years.

At the front of the church you can see a beautiful statue of the Virgin Mary and her son Jesus. This Madonna has her own garments for special occasions and church festivities. The sculptor made sure that Mary could easily change outfits. Can you figure out how he did this? *

The dress Mary is currently wearing was designed by the Antwerp fashion designer Ann Demeulemeester. She created this dress in 2001.

*The Christ sculpture can be unscrewed.

You can see the Madonna's beautiful ornate cloak in the treasury. The gold thread makes the cloak even more radiant. The Virgin Mary was dressed in this stunning outfit and carried around in a procession through the streets of St Andrew's parish. Even Saint Andrew's little boat was carried around. The people in the neighbourhood often put their own statues of the Virgin Mary under a glass bell jar, in front of the window during the procession.
